History of Racing in Deloraine

The first meeting was held at Alverstone Estate. In 1874 the first Deloraine handicap was run. In 1904 it became the Deloraine Cup. In 1881 the Deloraine Racing Club purchased 20 hurdles for 7 pounds and 10 shillings for racing over battens. In 1889 the Deloraine Racing Club arranged with the Deloraine Council to lease the property and agreed to spend 500 pounds on making a new course 400m from Alverstone Estate and build a new grandstand in return for two race meetings per year. In 1890 the new course and wooden grandstand were built. The Grandstand was built for 296 pounds. In 1906 the Deloraine Racing Club introduced the Tasmanian Grand National Steeplechase. The race was run over log and post and rail fences which were 3 feet 9 inches high. Winning stakes were paid on a Monday night at the Deloraine Hotel. In 1928 new fences of sod and gorse were constructed. In 1972 Piping Lane won the Melbourne Cup, going one better than his second place in the Deloraine Cup earlier that year. In March 2005 the last race meeting was held at Deloraine and the Cup was won by ZEVA ROYALE and JUMBO took out the Grand National.

The track was closed in 2005 as it did not meet occupational health and safety requirements and one of Tasmania's great sporting traditions was lost.

WHERE THE LOCALS MEET...

The sound of lively chatter around a historic bar, icy cold beer in the sunny courtyard underneath the 1840's fretwork balcony and views across to the beautiful Meander River. At the Deloraine Hotel, we offer hearty pub meals with a Tasmanian twist, and no visit to a country pub would be complete without backing up to a roaring fire. Deloraine is the cultural and scenic gateway to Cradle Mountain in the heart of the Meander Valley. A traditional hotel with a variety of accommodation, function and meeting rooms and a bottle shop. When you visit us we offer a friendly Tasmanian welcome in the heart of Deloraine.
